Performance Comments

Communication Comments

Kyo's communication is as clear as it gets. Thoughtful but to the point.

Collaboration Comments

No one runs a more organized consultant meeting than Kyo. He is respectful of everyone's time and sets clear goals for consultant. Within Ennead, he is very respectful about what each team member brings to the table.

Professionalism Comments

Kyo is highly regarded by the client, construction manager, owner's rep, and the consultants because he is always reliable, accountable, thoughtful, and incredibly trustworthy.

Technical Knowledge & Expertise Comments

I'm learning new things from Kyo every day. He truly shows a mastery of not just how to put a building together to how to do it in order to achieve both resiliency and design excellence. But beyond that, it is that he is also able to do it as a leader through his effective communication. We were told by our client reps that our SD drawings were the best they've ever seen and I attribute much of that to Kyo's efforts.
